Principal's Corner

This week brings lots of things the students were looking forward to: 1) The BookFair that is going through Thursday, 2) Parent Teacher Conferences and 3) Trunk or Treat!

The book fair is always a JOY! It is fun to see students picking out books they can't wait to read. Some even pick books for siblings for Christmas gifts.

Parent / Teacher conferences give us a time off from school and a change in schedules. Some families use this time to get away for a few days. Your parent/ teacher conference is more than just days off from school, it is an important time for you to check in with your child's teacher.

- Because time is limited at your conference, it is good to make a list of potential questions you may have.
- Please be respectful of everyone's time and be punctual to the conference. If you feel you are out of time, but still have more to discuss, please schedule a second time.
- Come to the conference with an open mindset.
- In the same way, our teachers recognize that you know your child better than anyone else so please share insights.

Trunk or Treat is also wrapped into this week. This is a fun way to reach out to our neighborhood and our Trinity family. Thank you to all who plan to participate. Thank you also to Midway Rental for the flood light for the parking lot. Bundle up and come join up 6:00 - 7:00 in the back parking lot.

Please be respectful of little ones who could be afraid of scary costumes. Keep it family friendly!
